Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 02 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wednesday dry, sunny in west, cloudier near east coast.

This Evening and Tonight:
Most areas staying clear with frost becoming widespread. A few freezing fog patches will also form. Cloudier skies may affect some coastal areas, especially the Moray Firth,. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Wednesday:
Dry during the day, with some long spells of sunshine for West Highland and Skye. More in way of cloud for Western Isles. Caithness and the Moray Firth. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Some overnight rain then mainly dry, bright Thursday, but colder. Friday sunny, but frost early and late. Sunny start Saturday, cloudier later, some rain in west.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.